Voices Together

An intergenerational conference for younger and older people in the rural areas of West Sussex - designed and facilitated by Inside Outreach.

The approach challenged stereotypes and mixed groups worked together on key issues including transport, fear of crime, leisure and community.

"People saw each other in a new light"

"Things have changed for the better"

"I've learnt a lot about different communities"

"I've learnt a lot at 83 years of age"

"Younger and older people mixed well together"

"There was a sense of unity of purpose across the generations"

"Well organised - a welcome change from lots of presentations"
